

March 4th - March 8th 2019

Reading

Breakfast

Thursday

5th March

On Thursday, to celebrate World Book Day, we would like to invite parents / carers / grandparents / aunts & uncles etc into school from 9.00 until 9.30 to share a book with your child or a group of children. We would love it if you have stories in your home language and would like to share them with the children!

Reach for the Stars Reading Challenge

This year the children can take up the Reach for the Stars Reading Challenge. There is a form you can download attached to this newsletter OR you can collect one from the office. The children have to read in different ways and styles, for example ; reading to a pet / animal, reading upside down or reading wearing a hat ! Parents must sign off their forms to say they have done them all. Once done, children must

Bedtime Story Wednesday 6th March

Children are invited back to school from 6-6.30pm to hear a bedtime story read by their teachers ! Bring a pillow & a teddy & wear

Wor ld

On Thursday 7th March it is World Book Day - Our theme for this years dressing up is 'Myths and Legends'. Some examples are Robin Hood, Beowolf, Pandora's Box, The Beast of Bodmin and the Loch Ness Monster.

Book Swap

This year our book swap is taking a slightly different format to usual. There will be a box in the school entrance where children can swap their unwanted books. They simply bring in any books from home (in good condition) and exchange

March 4th - March 8th 2019

D.E.A.R

Drop Everything and Read

During the week, in school time, the school bell will ring at unusual times. When the bell rings, the EVERYONE in the

POTATO BOOK CHARACTER COMPETITION

Our Literacy Week competition is a fun this year ... We would like all the children to get themselves a large potato and to transform it into a famous book character - How original can you be ? The children must bring in their completed

WHERE'S WALLY BOOK HUNT

On Wednesday 6th March at lunchtime there will be a Where's Wally book hunt - there will be pictures of Wally hanging around the school grounds. The children can search for the pictures and collect the letters to spell out the name of a famous children's book. Children can submit their entries to be put into a draw to win a bundle of books.

Reading Tree

In the hall there will be a reading tree. During the week the children will have the opportunity to write the name of a good book they have read and hang it on our reading tree ! This is a great opportunity for dren their chil-

to share good