Maths

This week we counted to 100 and partitioned numbers up to 100 into tens and ones.

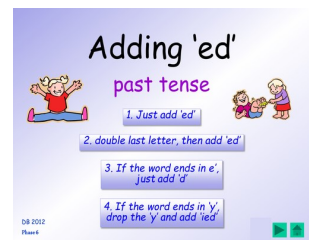

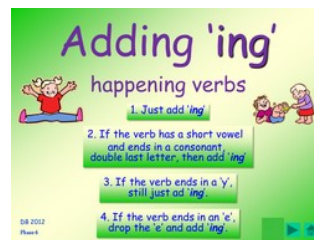

Next week we will place learning about money. We will be learning to recognise and name coins and notes. We will also be counting coins.

Phonics / Spellings

This week we focused on adding =ing to the end of words.

Next week we will be learning to add -ed to the end of words.

English

This week we edited and improved our nocturnal animal stories using our green editing pens. We are very proud of our stories and worked incredibly hard.

Next week we will be writing non fiction biographies about famous inventors like the wright brothers.

Topic:

We really enjoyed our topic 'Amazing Africa' this half term and hope you will enjoy learning about Africa as well during our assembly on Friday.

Next week we will be starting our mini unit 'Incredible inventors'. We will be learning about famous inventions including the car, the television and the internet.

Homework

Discuss with an adult what an inventor and inventor is. Find out who invented the telephone.

Have a good weekend, Love Miss OBrien x
