

Success Criteria for your own short narrative Story

| To write and self-assess a short narrative | |
|--|-----------------|
| Success Criteria | Self-Assessment |
| There should be: | |
| 1. I have included an introduction and a build – up to Pelegrina's Story | |
| 2. I have used paragraphs | |
| 3. I have included effective but not unnecessary dialogue using speech marks '...' | |
| 4. I have used effective language including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Fronted adverbials to describe action• Strong Adjectives | |
| 5. I have built up my characters using small details | |
| 6. Challenge - I have included: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Similes• Metaphors• Personification | |
| What can I do to improve my story next time? | |

Ancient Mesopotamia

Introduction (What is your report about?)

Where was Ancient Mesopotamia? (The land between two rivers)

Why did people build cities in Ancient Mesopotamia? (It was called the Fertile Crescent.)

What effect did the geography of Ancient Mesopotamia have on civilization? (Agriculture, permanent houses and the beginning of government)

Conclusion (an interesting sentence to end the report.)
