

Success Criteria for your report

To write and self-assess a report on Ancient Mesopotamia, focusing on its geography and rivers
Success Criteria	Self-Assessment
There should be:
1. A title and opening sentences clearly explaining what the report is about.
2. Paragraphs of information with appropriate headings.
3. Tables/pictures/diagrams to add information.
4. Facts linked within each paragraph.
5. A conclusion- summary of the key points.
6. Factual language.
7. Appropriate tense.
8. An interesting sentence to end the report.
9. Re-read to check for spelling/ punctuation errors and to check that the meaning is clear.

Ancient Mesopotamia

Introduction (What is your report about?)

Where was Ancient Mesopotamia? (The land between two rivers)

Why did people build cities in Ancient Mesopotamia? (It was called the Fertile Crescent.)

What effect did the geography of Ancient Mesopotamia have on civilization? (Agriculture, permanent houses and the beginning of government)

Conclusion (an interesting sentence to end the report.)
